

COVID-19 Cancellation Policy
CGLCC Black & White Gala

Attendees will not be subject to a refund for any of the following circumstances:

- If they are determined by the organizer (CGLCC) to be in breach of any of the COVID-19 safety measures and COVID-19 Attendance Policy in place.
- If they are not fully vaccinated against COVID-19 (double vaccination) and are unable to provide proof of such vaccination history at the check-in desk.
- If they have not completed the COVID-19 waiver form prior to arrival at the check-in desk.

Attendees will be subject to a credit refund, less a $100 administration fee, to be used for any future CGLCC event for any of the following circumstances:

- If their temperature check returns a non-nominal result.
- If their COVID-19 waiver form has been completed, but is determined to be ineligible for entry.
- If they have been in close contact with someone exposed to COVID-19.
- If their employer has implemented a policy that prevents attendance to the event.

If the event is cancelled at any stage due to a change in City of Toronto and Ontario provincial guidelines, CGLCC will issue attendees a full credit note or refund.
